STATISTICAL REVIEW

of the

California Dried Fig Industry

1982

CALIFORNIA FIG INSTITUTE

DRIED FIG ADVISORY BOARD

FRESNO, CALIFORNIA

FOREWORD

This compilation of statistical data, relating to the Dried Fig Industry, has been prepared by the staff of the California Fig Institute and the California Dried Fig Advisory Board to present as comprehensive a picture of the Industry as possible in a limited space. Because of the operation of a Quality Program under a California State Marketing Order, the statistics are quite accurate since they are based on official documentation.

We have indicated throughout the sources from which the data has been derived and we are particularly indebted to the various State and Federal Cooperative Statistical Services, the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The information contained herein is complete through the marketing season ending July 31, 1982, except in those cases where the data is shown to be either preliminary or the dating of the chart indicates a partial year. In general, United States production, shipment and acreage statistics are almost final with little possibility of any substantial change in future editions.

We trust this review will be of value to you.
